

Health Information Online Website Detective Questions

Who	Who created and reviewed the information?
	What makes them qualified?
	Do they work for a reputable well-known health organization?
What	What information is provided and does it fit your needs?
	Do you understand it?
	Are there spelling errors or other mistakes?
When	When was the information created and is it up to date?
	When was it reviewed or updated?
	Do the links work?
Where	Where did the information come from?
	Do other reputable well-known websites have the same information?
Why	Why was the information created?
	Who pays for the website and could they be trying to sell you something?	